DUNBRIDGE.

The town of Dunbridge, although not the largest, or most flourishing town in the county, is withal a pleasant little village, and contains many warm hearted hospitable people, who always make an effort to treat the stranger or visitor with a welcome that makes him feel at home.

Among the most prominent citizens may be mentioned with commendable pride the name of Dr. J. E. Pope, a young, though popular and successful physician and one of our most enterprising and thorough go-ahead people.
He has recently moved his family into his new residence, which is a model of neatness, convenience, and beauty, and ranks with the best and largest residences of the county.

John Currant, who is doing a good business in groceries and provisions, etc., and who enjoys the respect and confidence of the community, is also building a residence. A short time since he purchased the residence of Chas. Segar, and is now building an addition and otherwise greatly improving the residence, which, when complete, will be one of the neatest homes of its dimensions, in the county. He has also recently built a new barn on the premises. W. W.
Hampton, a first class carpenter and a resident of Dunbridge, is doing the work, which is a guarantee that it will be well done.

The schools closed at 2 p. m. on Friday last to give the teachers and pupils an opportunity to properly observe Arbor day.

E. W. DeVerna, having recently purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by Spafford Bros. is now engaged in moving the stock to his own building, which has been arranged to furnish room for the combined stocks.
DeVerna is doing a good business and is deserving of his success.

W. S. Yerkeson is the popular and efficient station agent for the T. C. & C. Ry. here.

Although Dunbridge is not a city, it is occasionally treated to a sensational affair which would do credit to a village of much greater pretensions. Not far from the "hoopskirts" of our town lives a lady at whose house there has been a number of dances lately, and it had become understood that these dances were conducted for the purpose of drawing thither the young men of the surrounding vicinity, and that the nature of the amusements was such as to cause the mistress thereof to be guilty of conducting a disorderly house, and for the purpose of effectually quenching the place, a warrant was sworn out and an order placed in the hands of Constable W. W. Hampton, who called to his assistance Mr. Goodell and the two proceeded to swoop in the festive people. On the approach of the officers the gallants who were participating in the festivities of the evening, promptly proceeded to make themselves very scarce, and the scoop resulted in bringing in three women who were brought before his majesty, Justice Jones, where they were ordered to pay the costs, and agreed to conduct a more orderly place in the future.

N. W. Eddy & Co. are running the stave factory here and John Currant is cashing the checks.

Charles Hilt lost a valuable stallion last week, the cause of his death being unknown. It is a hard bit of luck for Charley, as the horse was one of the most valuable in the county.

A well will be drilled on the George Nageley place near town by a Toledo Company who will prospect for oil. If a good well is found Dunbridge will take a sky rocket trip and land will be sold by the inch.

A leap year party will be held at G.
A. R. hall on Friday night for the benefit of the Relief fund of the Post.

The Ruble House, furnishes the best hotel accommodations to be found in a country hotel. Mrs. Ruble, the landlady, makes special effort to make the guests comfortable.

Our Druggists

Say they never saw its equal, and you need not longer question the merits of Persian Cough Syrup curing La Grippe. "It will do it." They say it is the marvel of the age—most wonderful medicine known—outselling all other medicines ever sold from their stores. This praise comes from all alike. Seventy-one dozen sold in Chillicothe in the last three weeks. No better evidence of its true merit can be given. Dr. Hamilton, of New York, the most brilliant microscopist living, says this terrible disease is caused by a microbe found floating in the air.
Persian Cough Syrup, the most wonderful germicide known, destroys this germ or microbe and checks your coughing and expectoration becomes free and easy and you are relieved at once. A few doses rarely fail to give relief and a small bottle always a cure.
Sold by A. R. Champney.

SOOTH RIDGE.

May 3.—Robt. Phalors infant child died last Friday, funeral services were held at the house on Sunday.

Mrs. Stephen Cupp a resident of this township for 30 years died at her home in East Toledo on Sunday last. Funeral services were held on Wednesday.

Roy and Cora Ford of Genoa, were visiting relatives a few days last week.
Miss Nora Underwood commenced the Summer term of school last Monday in District No. 4.

Miss Xariffa Hurlbutt will teach the school at this place this Summer.

There will be a new brick school house built here this Summer.

There was a new district formed near the center of the township at the last meeting of the board of education and there will be a brick house there also.

Wm. Bandeen and Chas. Schrader are both happy as each have a new boy.

The soldiers and citizens of this place and vicinity will meet at the school house on Monday evening to arrange a programme for memorial day. A full attendance is desired.

Interesting News Letter from Friends "on the Other Side."

Mrs. G. H. Blaker entertained the Literary Club last Thursday night.
About twenty persons were present to read and discuss the poems of James Russell Lowell. Dr. Kline prepared and read a biographical sketch of the poet's life. A. H. Eckert read "The Harvard Commemoration Ode." L. M.
Murphy read "The Washers of the Shroud" and Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Gillett and Ammy Mitchell, each read short poems. Miss Gillett and Rev. Blair accompanied by Miss Swan, furnished the songs for the evening. Mrs. Kline prepared a souvenir for each person present, and the entertainment closed with a quotation of Lowell's from every body, each one feeling it was not only pleasant but profitable to be there.
L. M. Murphy and wife will entertain the society on the 6th of June, when the Life and Works of Bryant will be discussed.

The many friends of Lew Vosburg and wife of Toledo, were grieved to hear of the death of another one of their little ones; this time the youngest son succumbed to that dread disease, diphtheria. The remains were interred in Maumee cemetery on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Vosburg have the deepest sympathy of the people of Maumee in this their double affliction.

Mrs. Shelly and sons of Toledo spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Wm.
Swan.

Fred LaPoint and wife had another little daughter arrive at their house last Saturday.

Miss Lida Blaker is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. G. Frederick at Trenton, Mich.

Miss Lillian Madden, attending the Convent in Toledo, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Phoe Wilcox has resigned her position in the Toledo schools and returned home for the Summer.

Chas. Holloway of Holland and O. D.
Willets of Indiana, dined with Dr. and Mrs. Kline one day last week.

Mrs. Charley Chisow and daughter Murrell, of Marion, Ind., arrived last Saturday to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mowen.

The Maumee band went to Toledo Sunday to help lay the corner stone of the new Catholic church.

The lecture on "War and our War," given at Union hall last Friday night by L. M. Murphy for the benefit of the G. A. R. was highly appreciated by a large audience. Mr. Murphy is a fine speaker and handled his subject in a masterly manner, bringing out many new and original ideas. Miss Abbie Cogswell read "Whispering Bill," and read it well, too. Not a person in the hall but could hear and understand every word she read, which should be the aim of every person reading to an audience. The entertainment netted a neat sum for the Grand Army boys.

The Ladies Aid society met at Mrs.
H. D. Kingsbury's last Thursday atternoon and a pleasant time spent.

Mrs. E. M. Black and two children left last Tuesday morning to spend several days with friends in Clyde, O.

Every family should be provided with some reliable remedy for bowel complaints. The want of such an article is the cause of much suffering, especially during the summer months. In almost every neighborhood some one has died, with cramps or cholera morbus, before a physician could be procured or a physician summoned. A fair trial will satisfy you that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is unequalled for those diseases. It is also a certain cure for dysentery and diarrhoea.
When reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Children like it. For sale by A. R. Champney.

How Secure the Conversion of Our Sun- day School Scholars?

[Paper read by Miss Lampman at the S. S. Convention last week.]

I realize fully my incompetence to answer this question, even to my own satisfaction, and can open the discussion in no better way than by asking—How impress the class with the infinite importance of this subject? How make them realize the fact that the matter is in their own hands, and that they must make a deliberate choice?
How awaken them to the necessity of an early decision?

These things must be placed before them as facts—not as vague and indistinct conditions—facts with which they must deal, not obscure conditions which in some mysterious way will be overruled for their good, with the result that they find themselves Christians without knowing why or how they became such. How shall we impress the importance of this subject upon their minds?

Show them that they must not be indifferent to it; that it is the momentous question of our lives; that it intimately concerns our present life, and decides our hereafter. True it is difficult to realize there is nothing good in us which recommends us to God, and that our only ground of appeal is our helplessness and need of him.

We do not see the sin in our hearts, and being blind, we contrast ourselves with others, and congratulate ourselves that we are not as other men. This is human nature.

Show them that God's own word teaches there is no good in us, by nature; that notwithstanding a fair and pleasant exterior there is under and back of all, the motive of self pleasing.
There may sometimes be a seeming self denial, but it is self gratification, after all, and not a denial of self because of the love of God, and for his pleasing.

Teach them to analyze their motives of action, and cease to allow feeling or impulse to govern them; to take God's word as guide, and to believe that He knows them better than they know themselves.

Try to show them that if we were not sinful, Christ need not have died; that if we did not need him, his coming was useless—and surely God could not make a mistake, in his designs—therefore it must have been a necessity, for Christ came to save sinners. We are all under condemnation, because we are all sinners; it is not a matter of doubt or degree for "He that offendeth in one point is guilty of all."

Be sure to have Bible authority for all your assertions; then they cannot be questioned. Try to impress strongly the fact that without faith we cannot please God, no matter how many good deeds we may claim—for by the deeds of the law shall no man be justified.

Teach them that obedience is first—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart." That is—they must give themselves to God. Come to Christ for pardon, justification and cleansing.

Teach them that through him and by him alone we are saved. That salvation is the gift of God, to be accepted by us—not something to grow into by trying to imitate Christ in our lives, without first consecrating our lives to him.
We grow in grace after we are saved, but do not grow into a saved condition.

Try to make these truths of salvation plain to them—not as though it were a visionary something which they could not clearly understand, much less be certain they had obtained —to be regarded with longing and hope but never certainty. Show them it is the one blessed certainty in the world, changing despair into hope, sorrow into joy. Now impress upon them the fact that they have the matter in their own hands; that a definite choice must be made, and they must decide the question in one way or the other.

They will lose the enlightening, up-lifting presence of the Holy Spirit, by simply neglecting to yield to his influence.

They may walk in darkness all the years, more disastrous even than this.
They may lose their souls by nothing more than forgetting God.

And this does not mean never thinking of God. One may think of Him when viewing a lovely landscape or a beautiful sunset. One may think of His power during a fearful thunder storm, and yet, He may be forgotten.

We may even imagine we have

Some of the Grand Army boys may be interested in the following, from Alex. B. Pope, A. D. C., Commander, Dep't. Tenn. and Ga. He says: "We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here, (Stewart, Tennessee,) and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only medicine that has done any good." There is no danger from whooping cough, when this remedy is freely given. It completely controls the disease. 50 cent bottles for sale by A. R. Champney.

thankful hearts, and that we love him, when all our surroundings are in accord with our wishes, and we feel at peace with ourselves and the world.
And yet, God may be forgotten.

Forgetting God means planning our business or pleasure and directing our course of action regardless of what God would have us do or be. Then self dominates our lives, and our aim is our own comfort or pleasure, wealth or fame, without one thought of what God designs for us. Teach them they must not expect to be driven or forced into the kingdom. Heaven will never be thrust upon them. They will never be convinced against their wills. They
